Creative Response

Imagine you are Heidi writing a letter to Peter. Tell him what you thought about the sunset and the beautiful colors you saw together on the pasture.

Dear Peter,

Remember to describe the sunset using details from the chapter.

Think about the colors Heidi notices and how the mountains and sky change as the sun goes down.

How does Heidi feel while watching the sunset with Peter?

Sincerely,
Heidi

WRITING RUBRIC (16 POINTS POSSIBLE)

Use the rubric below to score your letter to Peter.

Category	4 Points	3 Points	2 Points	1 Point	My Score
I answered the prompt	I described the sunset and its changing colors, and what I think and feel watching it.	I described both parts, but one part is stronger.	I mostly described only one part, or I went off topic.	I didn't answer the prompt.
I included details from Chapter 2 or 3	I used three or more true details and included a short quote from Chapter 2 or 3.	I used two or more true details from Chapter 2 or 3.	I used one or two details, but they are too general or unclear.	I used no true details, or I made up events.
I wrote in Heidi's voice	It sounds like Heidi: I used the first-person I , shared feelings, and sound curious and cheerful.	It mostly sounds like Heidi.	Sometimes it sounds like a book report or uses modern slang.	It's not written in Heidi's voice.
I checked my spelling and grammar	I have 0-1 errors in spelling, grammar, punctuation.	I have 2-3 errors.	I have 4-5 errors.	I have 6 or more errors.
