

Lesson Objectives

STUDENTS WILL BE ABLE TO

- Identify and describe the main characters (Heidi, Grandfather, Peter) using evidence from the text (RL.3.3).
- Define ten key vocabulary words using context clues and apply them in sentences (L.3.4).
- Sequence the major events of Heidi's first evening settling in at Grandfather's hut and Heidi and Peter's day on the mountain pasture and explain why each event is important (RL.3.1).
- Make inferences about Grandfather's motivations and feelings toward Heidi based on his actions, such as building her a chair and checking on her during the night (RL.3.1).
- Engage effectively in collaborative discussions by building on others' ideas, asking clarifying questions, and providing text evidence to support thinking (SL.3.1).
- Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, descriptive details, and clear event sequences (W.3.1).

Lesson 2
With the Grandfather & On the Pasture

Get Ready to Read

What would you do first if you moved somewhere completely new and did not know anyone there?

Materials needed

- Heidi, by Johanna Spyri (Classic Books for All edition), Chapters 2-3, for each student.
- Classic Books for All Heidi Student Workbook.
- Chart paper or whiteboard for class discussions.
- Pencils and notebook.
- Optional: Drawing paper and colored pencils.

TIP This lesson is designed to fit within a 60-minute instructional period. It may be split into two 30-minute sessions if needed.

Tell students to open their student workbooks to page 17 and share their answer with their neighbor.

Materials needed

QUICK-WRITE PROMPT

"What would you do first if you moved somewhere completely new and did not know anyone there?"

IMPLEMENTATION

- Ask students to think about a time they slept somewhere new, like a friend's house or on a trip.
- Display the quick-write prompt and give students three minutes to write.
- Have two or three volunteers share.
- Connect to Heidi's situation: "In these chapters, Heidi sleeps in a brand-new place for the very first time, then spends her first whole day outside on the mountain with goats and a boy named Peter."

TIP Connecting to a personal experience of sleeping somewhere new helps students relate to Heidi's first night at her grandfather's hut.

ACTIVITIES

Introduce words with context

• Write each word on the board.

• Read the sentence from the book containing the word.

• Think-aloud: “What clues help me understand this word?”

• Example on page 34 for perplexed: “‘Perplexed, Heidi asked, “But what is it then?”’ Look at what Heidi does right after this word. She asks a question. That tells you she does not understand something and is confused.”

Words to Know

Use the chapters to find each word and complete the chart below.

Word	Definition (use context clues from the story)	Sentence from book (with page number)	My own sentence using this word
fir trees	Tall evergreen trees with needle-like leaves and cones.	“As evening arrived, the wind started to blow through the fir trees.” (p. 22)	The children walked through a forest filled with fir trees.
hayloft	A space high inside a barn where hay is stored.	“Heidi climbed up to find a hayloft filled with sweet-smelling hay.” (p. 16)	Heidi climbed up to the hayloft to sleep.
opposite	On the other side of something, facing it.	“Heidi was already piling hay to make a comfy bed opposite the window.” (p. 18)	I sat opposite my friend at the lunch table so we could talk face to face.
struggled	Tried very hard to do something difficult.	“Heidi struggled to unfold the bag...” (p. 18)	I struggled to open the tight jar, so I asked my dad for help.
kettle	A metal pot used for heating water or cooking over a fire.	“A large kettle was suspended by a chain in the center of the fireplace.” (p. 19)	Grandfather hung the kettle over the fire to make supper.

Vocabulary extension

Before reading

• Find synonyms for all ten vocabulary words and explain subtle differences.

• Create original sentences using two to three vocabulary words together.

• Word families: Explore related words (observe, observation, observing).

Word	Definition (use context clues from the story)	Sentence from book (with page number)	My own sentence using this word journey	A long trip from one place to another.	“She recalled her journey up the mountain and all the people she’d left behind in the village.” (p. 26)	Our journey to grandma’s house took three hours by car.
pasture	A grassy field where animals eat and roam.	“Do you want to go with him to the pasture?” Grandfather asked.” (p. 26)	Peter led the goats across the pasture.
cliff	A high, steep side of rock or land.	“Peter told her to be careful of the cliff edge, and Heidi asked innocently, ‘What cliff?’” (p. 28)	The children stayed away from the edge of the cliff.
observe	To watch something carefully and pay close attention to it.	“Heidi continued to observe in wonder. ‘Look, everything is turning pink now!’” (p. 34)	We went outside to observe the butterflies flying from flower to flower.
wilted	Bent over or drooping because of a lack of water or freshness.	“But the flowers didn’t look so cheerful anymore. They were wilted and sad.” (p. 35)	The flowers looked wilted after sitting in the sun all day.

English language learners

Before reading

• Show pictures of a mountain hut or log cabin. Ask: “What do you think it looks like inside? Where would you sleep?”

• Show pictures of a mountain pasture, goats, wildflowers, and an eagle so students can connect the English words to real images before reading.

• Preview these words with simple definitions before reading: hayloft (a high place in a barn where hay is kept), kettle (a big pot used to boil water), fir trees (tall trees that stay green all year), toasted cheese (cheese cooked over a fire until it turns golden), goat shed (a small building where goats live), pasture (grassy field), bleat (the sound a goat makes), wilted (a droopy flower), and cliff (a very tall, steep rock).

• Use gestures and act out key actions students will read about: washing your face hard, picking flowers, watching a bird fly up high, and sharing food with a friend.

• Explain the word opposite using the classroom: “The door is opposite the window—it is across from it.”

Partner practice

- Assign partners.
- Each pair gets two to three vocabulary words.
- Partners find the word in the text and discuss what it might mean.
- Use this sentence frame: “I think ____ means ____ because the text says ____.”

Quick check

- Call on pairs to share definitions.
- Confirm or clarify meanings.
- Post vocabulary words on Word Wall.

Guided Reading

TIP Divide each chapter into four sections and incorporate pause points throughout. Use different characters voices when reading dialogue. Point out descriptive language, and model “thinking aloud” when making inferences.

English language learners

Before reading

- Preview key characters with students: Heidi, Peter, and Grandfather. Show them that Peter is a boy who watches over goats on the mountain every day.
- Ask students: “Have you ever gone somewhere new and felt excited? How did it feel?” Connect this feeling to Heidi waking up happy in her new mountain home.
- Provide a summary sheet of main events.
- Tell students the main idea in simple terms: “Heidi moves in with her grandfather. They eat dinner together and she makes a bed out of hay.”

- Use reading partners: Pair with stronger reader for partner reading.
- Show students the illustrations in the chapter (Heidi in her hayloft, Grandfather and Heidi eating) and ask them to describe what they see using simple phrases.
- Graphic support: Give partially completed character chart with some boxes already filled in.

Advanced students

Before reading

- Ask students to predict: “Grandfather seemed unfriendly in Chapter 1. Do you think he will treat Heidi well? What clues from the story make you think that?”
- Challenge students to think about point of view: “As you read, notice how Grandfather acts versus what he says. Are they the same or different?”
- Challenge students to predict: “Heidi is new to the mountain. How do you think spending a whole day outside will change the way she feels about her new home? Write two or three sentences before you read.”

- Ask students to think about Peter before reading: “What kind of person do you think Peter is based on his job of watching goats alone every day? What might he think of Heidi joining him?”
- Introduce the idea of “character growth.” Tell students to watch for moments in the chapter where a character learns something new or changes the way they act.

PAUSE AND ASK

- “What food does Heidi give to Peter during lunch?” (comprehension)
- “Peter is amazed when Heidi shares her food with him. What does this tell you about how Peter usually eats his lunch?” (inference)

 English language learners

During reading

- Pause after page 27 and ask: “Why does Grandfather put extra food in Peter’s bag?” Let students point to the sentence in the book that answers this.
- On page 31, read aloud the part where Heidi gives Peter her cheese and bread. Ask: “What does Heidi give Peter? Why does Peter look surprised?”
- On page 35, ask: “Why do Heidi’s flowers look sad when she gets home?” Guide students to find Grandfather’s one-sentence answer on page 35. Provide a simple sentence frame for comprehension checks: “Heidi wanted to sleep in the ____ because ____ and Grandfather made Heidi a ____ out of ____.”

- “I think ____ because ____.”
- “The text says ____, which means ____.”
- “This shows that Heidi is ____.”

Think About the Story

Use the chapters to answer the questions below.

1. What did Heidi find at the top of the ladder inside the hut?

Heidi climbed up to find a hayloft filled with sweet-smelling hay and a tiny window through which she could see all the way down to the valley (page 16).

2. What are the names of Grandfather’s two special goats?

Grandfather told Heidi that the white goat is called Schwänli and the brown one is called Bärli (page 23).

3. Why did Grandfather climb the ladder to check on Heidi in the middle of the night?

Grandfather thought Heidi might be scared because the wind was very loud and strong and the little hut was shaking (page 23).

4. Who was already waiting outside with the goats when Heidi came out in the morning?

Peter was already there with his goats, waiting for Schwänli and Bärli (page 26).

5. What did Heidi give Thistlefinch to calm the goat down near the cliff?

Heidi picked some sweet-smelling herbs and held them under the goat’s nose. (page 32).

 English language learners

During reading

- Pause after each page and ask a simple question, such as: “What did Heidi find at the top of the ladder?” or “What did Grandfather cook for dinner?”
- Read aloud tricky sentences together. For the sentence “Heidi struggled to unfold the bag,” ask: “What does struggled mean? Has it ever been hard for you to open something heavy?”

- “Why is the little goat Snowhopper so sad?” (comprehension)
- “Heidi stops Peter from hitting Thistlefinch and offers him her cheese and bread every day. What does this tell you about how Heidi feels about animals?” (inference)
- “Heidi thinks the sunset looks like everything is on fire. Is that a good way to describe what she sees? Why or why not?” (analysis)

Section 9 (pages 31-35)

Read from “Heidi ran back to Grandfather, beaming with joy” through the end of the chapter.

PAUSE AND ASK

- “What does Grandfather say happened to the flowers Heidi picked?” (comprehension)
- “The word observe means to look at something very carefully. Find a place in this part of the chapter where Heidi is observing something. What is she looking at?” (vocabulary and comprehension)
- “Grandfather says the sunset is the sun saying goodnight to the mountains. Why do you think Heidi loves this idea?” (analysis)

Tiered Discussion

Assign Student Workbook pages for homework, or complete them together in class. Pause during Tiered Discussion to complete workbook pages.

Advanced students

- Allow discussion to guide students in completing workbook pages.
- Go over student workbook together.

Literal comprehension

- “What did Heidi find at the top of the ladder inside the hut?” (A hayloft and a tiny window with a view of the valley.)
- “What did Grandfather cook over the fireplace for their evening meal?” (A large piece of cheese on a long iron fork. He held it over the fire, turning it slowly until it was golden-brown on all sides.)
- “Where did Grandfather find the large bag he used as a cover for Heidi’s bed?” (His own bed.)

Reading Between the Lines

1. Why might Heidi say she does not want her things anymore when she arrives at the hut?

Heidi might feel this way because she is excited to start fresh in her new home and wants to move freely like the goats. This suggests she sees the mountain as a place of freedom rather than a reminder of her old life (page 16).

2. What clues show that Grandfather is beginning to enjoy having Heidi with him?

Grandfather chuckles when Heidi asks for a sheet, makes her a tall chair in his workshop, gives her extra milk, and checks on her during the stormy night, all of which suggest he is growing fond of her because he goes out of his way to make her comfortable and safe (page 20).

3. What does it suggest about Heidi that she set the table without being asked?

It suggests that Heidi is helpful and thoughtful because she noticed what they would need to eat and acted on it herself, showing that she pays close attention to what is happening around her and wants to contribute to the household (page 19).

Use complete sentences. What words in the chapter support your answer?

Advanced students

During reading

- On page 32, when Heidi stops Peter from hitting Thistlefinch, ask students to write one sentence in the margin: “What does this moment tell us about who Heidi is?”
- On pages 34–35, Heidi sees the sunset and calls it “fire.” Ask students: “Why does Heidi use the word fire? What does this tell us about how she sees the world around her?”
- Track Peter’s feelings throughout the chapter. Ask students to note at least three places where Peter’s mood changes and think about what causes each change.

4. Why might Heidi feel more excited and free on the mountain than she did in the village?

Heidi might feel more excited and free because, while living in the village, she had not gotten a chance to play outside much, which often made her sad. On the mountain she could run, pick flowers, and explore, so she felt truly happy for the first time (page 26).

5. What clues show that Peter was frustrated while watching over Heidi and the goats at the same time?

The text says Peter had to keep the goats together and look for Heidi at the same time, which frustrated him. He also called out when he could not find her, which shows that keeping track of her was difficult and stressful for him (page 27).

6. What does Heidi’s choice to give Peter all her cheese and bread suggest about how she treats others?

Heidi’s choice suggests that she is very generous and kind, because Peter was amazed and did not even believe she was serious at first. She gave away her own food without expecting anything in return, which shows she naturally thinks about what others need (page 31).

Advanced students

During reading

- Ask students to track evidence of how Grandfather’s feelings about Heidi change throughout the chapter. Have them note specific actions or quotes that show this.
- Prompt deeper thinking: “Why do you think Heidi hid her bundle of clothes as far back in the cupboard as possible? What does that tell us about how she feels about her old life?”
- Ask students to notice how the author uses nature to reflect the mood of the story. For example, what feeling does the wind create?

- “What are the names of Grandfather’s two special goats?” (Schwänli and Bärli.)
- “What did Grandfather build for Heidi in his small workshop?” (A tall chair for Heidi.)
- “What did Grandfather put in Peter’s lunch bag before they went up the mountain?” (He put extra bread and cheese in Peter’s bag, and added a little bowl for Heidi.)
- “What flowers did Heidi pick as she walked up the mountain?” (Red primroses, blue gentians, and golden rock roses.)
- “Where had Snowhopper’s mother been sold two days before?” (To someone far away in Maienfeld.)
- “What did Heidi give Thistlefinch to calm the goat down near the cliff?” (Some sweet-smelling herbs and held them under the goat’s nose.)
- “What did Grandfather say the eagle was doing when it cried so loudly?” (He said the eagle was laughing at the people in the villages below, telling them they would be happier living up high.)

EL EL learners

Inferential thinking

- “Why do you think Heidi chose to sleep in the hayloft instead of somewhere else in the hut?” (She is brave and excited about her new surroundings.)
- “What does the way Grandfather acts during dinner tell you about how he feels about Heidi joining him?” (He’s warming up to her and is enjoying having company.)
- “Why might Grandfather say to himself that Heidi is a smart one after she explains why she does not want her things anymore?” (He sees she understands that she does not need fancy clothes or extra things to be happy on the mountain.)
- “What does Grandfather checking on Heidi during the night suggest about how he feels toward her?” (He is beginning to care deeply for her and wants to make sure she is safe and comfortable.)

Dig Deeper

1. How does the way Heidi makes her bed in the hayloft show what kind of person she is?

Heidi piles the hay herself, asks Grandfather for a sheet because every bed should have one, and then notices they have forgotten a cover and finds a solution.

This shows she is resourceful, independent, and cheerful because rather than complaining about what is missing she works to solve each problem on her own (page 18).

2. What does Grandfather’s decision to climb the ladder and check on Heidi during the stormy night reveal about how his feelings toward her may be changing?

At the start of the chapter Grandfather is gruff and silent, but by night he is worried enough about Heidi to leave his own bed and climb up to the loft in the dark. This reveals that even though he did not ask for Heidi to come, he has already begun to care about her wellbeing, suggesting his cold manner is softening (page 23).

3. How does the scene where Heidi stops Peter from hitting Thistlefinch reveal what kind of person she is becoming on the mountain?

Heidi is growing into someone brave and compassionate. She does not just feel sorry for the goat—she grabs Peter, yells at him, and refuses to let go until he agrees never to beat the goats again. She even offers her own food every day as a trade to protect the animals, showing she is willing to sacrifice something for the goats’ safety (page 32).

EL English language learners

After reading

- Ask students to draw two things Grandfather did to help Heidi feel at home (for example, he made her a chair, he milked the goat for her).
- Use a sentence starter to help students respond: “Heidi felt _____ at Grandfather’s hut because _____.”
- Have students sequence three events from the chapter using picture boxes or sentence strips: 1) Heidi finds the hayloft, 2) Grandfather cooks dinner, and 3) Grandfather checks on Heidi at night.

4. What does the wilting of Heidi’s picked flowers teach her, and what lesson could readers take from this moment?

The wilted flowers teach Heidi that beautiful things belong in their natural place. Grandfather explains they are meant to stay in the sun and not be tucked away in an apron. Readers can learn that sometimes our wish to hold onto something beautiful can actually destroy it, and it is wiser to enjoy things where they belong rather than take them away (page 35).

5. Compare how Peter and Heidi each respond to the glowing sunset colors on the mountains. What does this reveal about each of them?

Heidi responds with excitement. She says the mountains look like they are on fire and asks many questions. Peter responds calmly and matter-of-factly, saying it always looks like this and that it just happens by itself. Heidi sees the mountain world with fresh eyes, while Peter has grown so used to the beauty around him that he has stopped noticing it (page 34).

EL English language learners

After reading

- Ask students to share one thing Grandfather did that was kind, using this frame: “Grandfather was kind when he _____.”
- Have students draw one thing Heidi saw on the mountain today. Below the picture, help them write one sentence: “Heidi saw _____.”
- Ask three literal questions students can answer by looking back at the chapter: 1) Who goes with Heidi to the pasture? 2) What does Heidi give Thistlefinch to calm him down? and 3) What does Grandfather say the red light on the mountains is?

- “What details in the chapter show that the mountain feels like a much freer place for Heidi than the village did?” (She makes herself at home on the mountain, acting independently and taking joy in the animals, fresh air, and natural beauty around her.)
- “Why do you think Grandfather takes such good care to prepare Heidi for her day on the pasture before she leaves?” (He wants her to be safe, comfortable, and cared for on the mountain, even if he does not always say his feelings out loud.)
- “Why might Peter agree to never beat the goats again after talking to Heidi?” (Heidi shows kindness toward the goats and helps him understand that treating them gently works better than hurting them.)
- “Why might Heidi feel a special connection to Snowhopper after hearing her story?” (She feels sorry for her and admires her courage after everything she has been through.)

Analytical thinking

- “Think about all the things Heidi does on her own during her first day, such as making her bed and setting the table. What do these actions tell you about her character?” (Heidi is independent, capable, and thoughtful. Even in a brand-new place, she notices what needs to be done and does it willingly.)
- “Grandfather starts the chapter as a quiet, gruff man and ends it by checking on Heidi in the night. What events during the day might have caused this change?” (Grandfather sees that Heidi is cheerful and helpful. Her excitement about the hayloft, the way she sets the table on her own, and her happiness with simple things like goat’s milk and fresh air may have softened him and helped him begin to feel protective toward her.)
- “How does Grandfather’s careful preparation—packing food, adding the bowl, and warning about the cliff—show what kind of guardian he is becoming for Heidi?” (He is becoming a thoughtful and protective guardian. By making sure Heidi has food, a bowl, and warnings about danger, he shows that he is paying close attention to her needs and taking responsibility for her safety and well-being.)

Literary analysis

- Ask students to write a short paragraph comparing Heidi and Peter: How are they different in the way they look at the mountain world around them? Use at least two examples from the chapter.
- Challenge students to think about Grandfather’s explanation of the sunset on page 36: “That’s the sun saying goodnight to the mountains.” “Why do you think Grandfather explains it this way instead of giving a science answer? What does this tell us about Grandfather?”

4. What did Heidi say to Thistlefinch to gently calm the goat down near the dangerous cliff?

Heidi spoke gently to the goat, telling it to be sensible or it might fall and hurt itself.

The quote shows how kind and calm Heidi was even in a scary moment. “Come on, Thistlefinch, be sensible. You might fall and hurt yourself” (page 32).

5. What did Heidi say to Grandfather when she came home to describe what she had seen on the mountain that day?

Heidi ran to Grandfather full of joy and told him about the fire and the glowing roses on the rocks, and showed him all the flowers she had brought. Her words show how filled with wonder she was after her day outside. “Oh, Grandfather! It was so beautiful out there! I saw a fire and roses glowing on the rocks! And look at all the flowers I brought for you!” (page 35).

Literary analysis

- Have students write a journal entry from Peter’s point of view after his first day with Heidi. What surprised him? What did he think of her? Encourage students to use details from the chapter to make Peter’s voice sound realistic.

Q: “Why did Heidi set the table without being asked?”

A: Heidi had already seen the plates, knives, and bread in the cupboard earlier. She guessed what they would need for dinner and wanted to help.

Q: “Why did Grandfather put his chair near Heidi’s little stool?”

A: Heidi’s stool was too low for her to reach the table. Grandfather placed his chair next to her stool to act as a table so she could eat comfortably.

Q: “Why did Grandfather put extra food in Peter’s bag?”

A: Grandfather wanted to make sure Heidi had enough to eat and drink while she was out on the pasture all day with Peter.

Q: “Why did the flowers look wilted and sad when Heidi got home?”

A: Grandfather told her the flowers were meant to stay in the sun. Being tucked away in her apron all day made them droop and wilt.

No DETAILS FROM THE CHAPTER

- Weak example: "I'm so happy at Grandfather's house. I like everything here."
- How to fix: Add specific details like the goats, Peter, the view, her cozy loft bed.

BREAKING CHARACTER

- Weak example: "I hate it here. I don't want to sleep in the hayloft. It smells bad."
- How to fix: Remind students what Heidi actually does and says in the chapter.

RETELLING THE WHOLE CHAPTER NOT FROM HEIDI'S EXPERIENCE

- Weak example: "Heidi went up the ladder. She found hay. She made a bed. Then Grandfather brought a sheet."
- How to fix: Write something new, such as what Heidi might be thinking as she falls asleep, or what she might say to the goats.

No EVIDENCE FROM THE TEXT

- Weak example: "I'm brave, and everyone likes me."
- How to fix: Ask students: "What does Heidi do or say that shows that?"

MODERN LANGUAGE THAT DOESN'T FIT THE STORY

- Weak example: "OMG this place is so awesome! The hayloft is totally cool!"
- How to fix: Use language similar to what's in the story.

Imagine you are Heidi writing a letter to Peter. Tell him what you thought about the sunset and the beautiful colors you saw together on the pasture.

Dear Peter,

WRITING RUBRIC (16 POINTS POSSIBLE)

Use the rubric below to score your letter to Peter.

I answered the prompt	I described the sunset and its changing colors, and what I think and feel watching it.	I described both parts, but one part is stronger.	I mostly described only one part, or I went off topic.	I didn't answer the prompt.
I included details from Chapter 2 or 3	I used three or more true details and included a short quote from Chapter 2 or 3.	I used two or more true details from Chapter 2 or 3.	I used one or two details, but they are too general or unclear.	I used no true details, or I made up events.
I wrote in Heidi's voice	It sounds like Heidi: I used the first-person I, shared feelings, and sound language and cheerful.	It mostly sounds like Heidi.	Sometimes it sounds like a book report or uses modern slang.	It's not written in Heidi's voice.
I checked my spelling and grammar	I have 0-1 errors in spelling, grammar, punctuation.	I have 2-3 errors.	I have 4-5 errors.	I have 6 or more errors.

Character Chart

Fill in the chart below for the main characters in Chapters 2 and 3. Find evidence from the text to support your observations.

Character Name	What They Look Like and How They Act	What This Shows About Them
Heidi	A young girl who is new to living on the mountain and full of wonder and energy.	Heidi is joyful, generous, and brave. She explores freely, shares her food, comforts Snowhopper, and stands up to Peter to protect Thistlefinch.
Grandfather	Heidi's grandfather, who lives alone in the mountains and prepares carefully for Heidi's day on the pasture.	Grandfather is protective and wise. He packs extra food, warns about the cliff, and later explains the eagle and the sunset to Heidi in a way that makes the world feel magical.
Peter	A boy who herds goats on the mountain every day and looks after Heidi during the outing.	Peter is practical and knows the mountain well, but he can also be short-tempered. He agrees not to hurt the goats after Heidi stands up to him, showing he can be influenced by kindness.
Snowhopper	A small, white goat who cries because her mother was sold away two days before.	Snowhopper's sadness gives Heidi a chance to show her compassionate nature. When Heidi hugs and comforts her, Snowhopper stops crying, showing that kindness has a real effect.
Thistlefinch	A brave goat who fights back against Big Turk but wanders dangerously close to the cliff edge.	Thistlefinch's near fall gives Heidi and Peter a dramatic moment that tests both of them. Heidi's quick, gentle thinking saves the goat and shows her ability to stay calm under pressure.

Success criteria

Share these criteria for success with students:

- Make a clear prediction
- Give at least one reason from the text
- Use the word because

Example responses:

- Strong: “I predict that Heidi will go back to the pasture with Peter again tomorrow. I think this because Peter invited Heidi to come with him the next day and she said yes. Heidi also promised to give Peter her cheese every day, so she has a reason to go back.”
- Developing: “I think Heidi will go to the pasture again. She liked the flowers and the goats.”
- Needs evidence added: “She will be happy.”
