Lesson 1
Going Up to the Alm-Uncle

Get Ready to Read

What do you think it would be like to meet a grandfather you’ve never known before? How would you feel?

Materials needed

- Heidi, by Johanna Spyri (Classic Books for All edition), Chapter 1, for each student.
- Classic Books for All Heidi Student Workbook.
- Chart paper or whiteboard for class discussions.
- Sticky notes for exit tickets.
- Pencils, crayons/markers for graphic organizers.

Get Ready to Read

- Tell students to open their student workbooks to page one and share their answer with their neighbor.

Quick-write prompt

“Imagine you had to move to a new place where you’d never been before to live with someone you’ve never met. How would you feel? What questions would you have?”

Implementation

Display prompt on board, then:

- Give students three minutes to write.
- Have two or three volunteers share.
- Connect to Heidi’s situation: “Today we’ll meet a little girl named Heidi who is going through exactly this experience!”

TIP Connecting to Heidi’s situation builds empathy and activates prior knowledge about feelings related to change and uncertainty.

Struggling Readers

Before reading

- Pre-teach vocabulary with picture cards and gestures (show pictures of cottages, mountains, goats).
- Reduce number of vocabulary words to five core words.

English language learners

Before reading

- Allow use of translation tools for key words.

Word	Definition (use context clues from the story)	Sentence from book (with page number)	My own sentence using this word

Vocabulary extension activities

Before reading

- Find synonyms for all ten vocabulary words and explain subtle differences.
- Create original sentences using two to three vocabulary words together.
- Word families: Explore related words (encourage, encouragement, encouraging).

Partner practice

- Assign partners.
- Each pair gets two to three vocabulary words.
- Partners find the word in the text and discuss what it might mean.
- Use sentence: “I think _____ means _____ because the text says _____.”

Quick check

- Call on pairs to share definitions.
- Confirm or clarify meanings.
- Post vocabulary words on Word Wall.

Guided Reading

TIP The lesson follows a read-aloud format with strategic pauses. Divide the chapter into four sections and incorporate pause points throughout.

Use different voices for characters and show emotion when reading dialogue. Point out descriptive language that creates imagery, and model “thinking aloud” when making inferences.

Read from “In the cozy little town...” through “... on their way up the mountain.”

Pause and ask:

- “What do we know about Heidi so far? How old is she? What does she look like?” (comprehension)

- “Why do you think Heidi is wearing ‘several layers of clothes and a big red shawl’ even though it’s summer?” (inference)
- “Turn and ask your partner: ‘How do you think Heidi feels right now?’” (analysis)

Section 2 (pages 2–5)

Read from “While they waited for Barbara...” through “What happened to Tobias?”

Pause and ask:

- “What do we learn about where Heidi is going?” (comprehension)
- “On page 3, Barbara says Alm-Uncle ‘won’t welcome you.’ What does this tell us about him?” (inference)
- “Why is Deta taking Heidi to live with her grandfather?” (comprehension)
- “Do you think this is a good plan? Why or why not?” (evaluation)

Section 3 (pages 5–11)

Read from “Hold on, I can’t tell you ...” through “It was a beautiful...”

Pause and ask:

- “What happened to Heidi while the adults were talking?” (comprehension)
- “Why did Heidi take off her clothes? What does this show about her?” (analysis)
- “The text says, ‘She now felt as nimble as the goats themselves.’ What does this mean?” (vocabulary and inference)
- “How does Peter feel about getting the five-penny coin? How do you know?” (inference)

Section 4 (pages 12–14)

Read from “The view of the valley...” through the end of the chapter.

Pause and ask:

- “Describe Grandfather’s hut and where it’s located.” (comprehension)
- “How does Heidi greet her grandfather? How does he respond?” (comprehension)
- “The text says, ‘Peter ran off immediately, happy to leave after the stern look from Uncle.’ What does stern mean here?” (vocabulary and inference)

Struggling readers

Before reading

- Read aloud first section while students follow along.
- Build background knowledge: Show photos and videos of Swiss Alps, and discuss what a goat herder does.
- Provide summary sheet of main events.

During reading

- Chunk the text into smaller sections (read 1-2 paragraphs at a time).
- Use reading partners: Pair with stronger reader for partner reading.
- Provide character name cards with pronunciations (Deta = DAY-tah, Heidi = HI-dee).
- Graphic support: Give partially completed character chart with some boxes already filled in.

English language learners

Before reading

CULTURAL CONNECTIONS

- Discuss extended family care (many cultures have similar arrangements).
- Share stories of mountain or rural life from students’ backgrounds.
- Explore different types of traditional clothing in various climates.
- Pre-teach cultural context: Explain what goat herding is, mountain village life, historical Switzerland.

During reading

SENTENCE STARTERS FOR ALL DISCUSSION

- “I think___ because___.”
- “The text says___, which means___.”
- “This shows that Heidi is___.”
- Word walls with visual representations.
- Partner with fluent English speaker for discussion activities.
- Picture sequence of main events to aid comprehension.

Think About the Story

Assign Student Workbook pages for homework, or complete them together in class. Pause during Tiered Discussion to complete workbook pages.

Tiered Discussion

- Arrange students in a circle or small groups of four to five
- Allow discussion to guide students in completing workbook pages.
- Go over student workbook together.

Literal comprehension

- “Where is Heidi at the beginning of the story?” (Maienfeld)
- “Who is taking Heidi up the mountain?” (Deta)
- “What do most people call Grandfather in the story?” (Alm-Uncle or Uncle)
- “Who is Peter?” (An 11-year-old goat herder)
- “What does Heidi take off during the climb?” (Shoes, socks, shawl, and two dresses)

TIP: Use these to build confidence. Encourage students to point to the page where they found the answer.

Think About the Story

Use the chapter to answer the questions below.

1. How old is Heidi?
About five years old (page 1).
2. Who is Deta?
3. Why can't Deta keep taking care of Heidi?
She has been offered a good job in Frankfurt and cannot take Heidi with her (page 3).
4. What is Peter's job?
He is a goat herder who takes the village goats up the mountain to graze (page 8).
5. How did Deta get Peter to fetch Heidi's clothes?
She offered him a five-penny coin (page 9).
6. How does Heidi greet her grandfather?
She calls out "Good evening, Grandfather!" cheerfully and holds out her hand (page 11).

Advanced students

During reading

- Author's craft analysis: "How does the author use descriptive language to help us visualize the mountain setting? Find three examples."
- "Write a paragraph from Peter's point of view about meeting Heidi."
- "What was life like in Switzerland in the 1880s? How is this story accurate?"
- Vocabulary journal to collect new words with drawings and sentences.
- Compare/contrast to student's own culture (mountains, villages, family structures).

Reading Between the Lines

Use complete sentences. What words in the chapter support your answer?

1. Why is Heidi wearing so many layers of clothes?
Deta didn't want to carry extra items, so she had Heidi wear her Sunday clothes over her everyday clothes (page 9). This shows Deta is practical but perhaps not thinking about Heidi's comfort.
2. What does Barbara's reaction tell us about how people in the village feel about Alm-Uncle?
People are afraid of him and think he's unfriendly and scary. Barbara says she's glad she doesn't have to go live with him, and she mentions people avoid him because of how he looks and acts (page 4).
3. Why doesn't Heidi seem worried about going to live with a grandfather she's never met?
She seems curious and adaptable rather than fearful. The text shows her as independent and interested in her surroundings—she explores, asks questions, and cheerfully greets her grandfather (pages 8–12).

Inferential thinking

- “Why do you think the author describes Heidi as having ‘rosy cheeks’ and being ‘tanned?’” (This shows she's healthy and spends time outdoors.)
- “Why might people in the village avoid Alm-Uncle?” (He looks scary, acts unfriendly, and doesn't come to church.)
- “What can we infer about Deta's feelings about taking care of Heidi?” (She feels burdened, wants her own life, and thinks it's Uncle's turn.)
- “Why does Peter agree to get Heidi's clothes after saying he's late?” (The five-penny coin is valuable to him.)

Struggling readers

After reading

- Small group review with teacher for key comprehension questions.
- Highlight key sentences in text.

Model inferences

- “The text says ____, so I can infer ____.”

English language learners

After reading

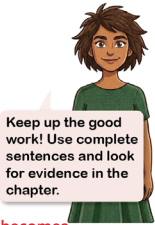

- Allow oral responses with teacher scribing.
- Simplified rubrics with visual examples
- Highlight key sentences in text.

Analytical thinking

- “How does the author show us that Heidi is different from other children her age?” (She’s independent, takes off her clothes without asking, isn’t scared, asks lots of questions, and adapts quickly.)
- “Compare how Deta and Heidi react to the climb. What does this tell us about each character?” (Deta is practical and business-focused while Heidi is curious and nature-loving.)
- “The author describes nature in detail—the ‘sweet scent of herbs,’ the ‘green, rolling hills.’ Why?” (This creates a beautiful setting, shows Heidi entering a natural paradise, and contrasts with the town.)
- “Why does Heidi ask Peter so many questions during the climb, and what does that tell us about her?” (She’s naturally curious and eager to learn. Instead of being nervous or quiet in a new situation, she engages with the world around her and tries to understand it.)

Dig Deeper

1. How does taking off her extra clothes change Heidi’s experience of the climb?
- After removing her heavy clothes, she feels “much more comfortable” and “as nimble as the goats themselves.” This shows she becomes free and able to enjoy the journey instead of struggling. It also shows her practical, independent nature (page 9).
2. Compare Deta’s and Barbara’s attitudes toward Alm-Uncle. What do their words reveal?
- Deta is determined but defensive—she insists Uncle “has to do his part” and that she’s “done a lot for Heidi.” Barbara is fearful and sympathetic to Heidi, saying it’s terrible to leave her there. This shows Deta feels burdened and somewhat guilty, while Barbara sees the situation as potentially harmful to Heidi (pages 4–7).
3. What does the description of the setting (the mountain, the hut, the view) suggest about Heidi’s new life?
- The setting is beautiful and natural but isolated. The “sweet scent of herbs,” “green, rolling hills,” and “breathtaking” view suggest freedom and beauty. But the hut is at the very top, away from everyone, suggesting loneliness. This creates both opportunity and challenge for Heidi (pages 1 and 11–12).

Keep up the good work! Use complete sentences and look for evidence in the chapter.

Struggling readers

- Allow students to respond orally instead of in writing.

2. What is Peter’s job?

☒ C. He herds goats up the mountain.
D. He takes care of his grandmother.
3. Why does Deta need Heidi to live with her grandfather?

Advanced students

Literary analysis

- Comparison essay: “Compare and contrast Deta and Barbara’s attitudes toward Alm-Uncle.”
- Foreshadowing: “What clues suggest that Heidi and Grandfather might become close?”
- Symbolism: “Why do you think the author has Heidi remove her heavy city clothes? What might this symbolize?”

Personal connection

- “Would you change as a person if you went to live on the top of a mountain away from most people? If so, how?”
- “If you were Heidi, how would you feel arriving at Grandfather’s hut? Would you be brave like her or scared?”
- “Barbara says ‘I’m glad it’s not me going to live with the old man.’ Why do you think she feels this way?”
- “The author wrote this story over 140 years ago. Do you think a story like this could happen today? What would be different?”

Common student questions

Q: “Why doesn’t Grandfather have a real name?”

A: In the story, everyone calls him Uncle (which became Alm-Uncle), but we might learn his real name later. Sometimes authors do this to make a character mysterious.

Q: “Is it okay that Peter doesn’t go to school?”

A: This story takes place long ago in Switzerland when many children, especially poor ones, worked instead of going to school. Today, children have the right to education.

Q: “Why is Heidi so happy when her aunt is leaving her?”

A: Heidi is only five years old and sees this as an adventure. She might not fully understand that Deta is leaving her permanently.

Evidence from the Story

Use complete sentences and include evidence from the text with page numbers.

1. Describe the path that leads up to the Alm-Uncle’s hut.

The path starts in the town of Maienfeld and is pretty and green. It goes through woods and meadows, then gets steep with the sweet smell of herbs. It takes about an hour to reach a small village halfway up, and then it continues to get steeper until you reach the hut at the top (pages 1 and 11).

2. Why do people in the village avoid the Alm-Uncle?

According to Barbara, people avoid him because he looks and acts scary. He has big gray eyebrows, a long beard, and carries a twisted walking stick. He doesn’t talk to anyone and hardly ever comes to church. People say he acts different from everyone else (page 4).

3. What happened to Heidi’s parents?

Heidi’s father, Tobias, died in an accident while building a house. Her mother, Adelheid, became so sad that she got sick and died soon after. Deta and her mother then took care of baby Heidi (pages 5-7)

Character Chart

Fill in the chart below for the main characters in Chapter 1. Find evidence from the text to support your observations.

Character Name	What They Look Like/How They Act	What This Shows About Them
Heidi	Five years old, rosy cheeks, tanned skin, wearing multiple layers of clothes initially, then just a light undershirt. She climbs the mountain despite being hot and tired. She takes off her heavy clothes without permission. She goes off with Peter and the goats. She asks lots of questions. She greets Grandfather cheerfully. She wants to explore everything.	She is independent, practical, curious, adaptable, brave, friendly, loves nature, and doesn't judge people based on what others say.
Deta	Tall, strong young woman. She guides Heidi up the mountain. She talks with Barbara about her new job. She shares Uncle's story but asks for secrecy. She gets frustrated when Heidi wanders off. She bribes Peter to get Heidi's clothes. She insists Uncle must take Heidi.	She is practical, determined, somewhat impatient, wants her own life, feels she's done her duty, and is maybe a bit selfish but also has worked hard for four years.
Alm-Uncle (Grandfather)	Long grey beard, big grey eyebrows that join in the middle, uses a twisted walking stick. He sits on his bench smoking his pipe and watching the valley. He smiles when Heidi approaches. He holds her hand and looks at her carefully. He speaks in a gruff voice but seems pleased by visitors. He asks concerned questions about caring for a child.	He may seem scary on the outside but has gentle feelings inside. He's isolated and not used to people. He's uncertain about caring for a child. He might be softer than his reputation suggests.
Peter	Eleven years old, wears light clothes, and goes barefoot. Herds goats up the mountain daily. He knows all the best grazing spots. He smiles when he sees Heidi in simple clothes. He refuses to get Heidi's clothes until offered money. He rushes to get them for five pennies. He leaves quickly when Uncle gives him a stern look.	He is poor and values money. He's comfortable in nature. He's a bit lazy or stubborn. He's afraid of Uncle. He spends most of his time alone with goats.
Barbara	Friendly-looking woman. She joins Deta on the walk and asks questions about Uncle. She expresses concern for Heidi. She says she's glad she's not going to live with Uncle.	She is curious, caring toward Heidi, fearful of Uncle based on gossip, and friendly with Deta.
