

CB4A Student Workbook ## Heidi — Chapter 1: Going up to the Alm-Uncle ### Johanna Spyri Pages 1–13 Grade 3 --- ## Get Ready to Read --- Before you read, think about these questions. Write or talk about your answers. 1. Have you ever had to go somewhere new that made you feel nervous or unsure? What happened? 2. If a family member you had never met asked you to come live with them, how would you feel? 3. Look at the chapter title: "Going up to the Alm-Uncle." What do you think this chapter will be about? --- ## Words to Know --- Word Definition Sentence from book (with page #) My own sentence ----- acts People avoid him because he looks and acts so scary. (p.1) responsible Tobias learned carpentry and was very responsible, unlike his father. (p.1) consider You must be out of your mind to consider it. (p.1) avoid People avoid him because he looks and acts so scary. (p.1) journey Deta said goodbye to Barbara near this hut, and Barbara continued her journey up the mountain. (p.1) treasure Peter didn't often get such a treasure. (p.1) approached She approached the old man and called out, "Good evening, Grandfather!" The old man looked up at the sound of her voice, his face softening into a smile. (p.1) wandered The goats wandered about, nibbling on the grass. (p.1) thrilled Heidi was thrilled to be at her grandfather's hut, high up in the mountains. (p.1) explore It was an adventure for her, and she was eager to explore every corner. (p.1) ## Think About the Story --- Answer each question in a complete sentence. Use the story to help you. 1. Where does the story begin, and where are Deta and Heidi going? (pp. 1–2) 2. Why does Deta say she cannot keep taking care of Heidi? (pp. 3–4) 3. What does Barbara think about the plan to leave Heidi with Alm-Uncle? Use a detail from the story. (p. 3) 4. What did Heidi do on the mountain path when she felt too hot? (pp. 9–10) 5. How did Deta get Peter to go back down the mountain and collect Heidi's clothes? (pp. 9–10) 6. How did Heidi greet her grandfather when she reached the top of the mountain? (pp. 11–12) --- ## Reading Between the Lines --- These questions ask you to think carefully. The answer is not written right in the story. Use clues from the text to help you think it through. 1. Deta keeps Heidi walking and does not stop to talk for very long. What does this tell you about how Deta feels about her plan to leave Heidi with Grandfather? Use a detail from pages 3–5 to support your thinking. 2. When Heidi took off her heavy clothes and shoes on the mountain path, she "felt as nimble as the goats themselves" (p. 10). What does this moment tell you about the kind of person Heidi is? 3. The old man's "face softening into a smile" when he heard Heidi's voice (pp. 11–12) surprised the reader. Why is this surprising, based on what Barbara and Deta said about him earlier in the chapter? Use details from pages 3–5. --- ## Dig Deeper --- These questions ask you to think about the big ideas in the story. Write at least two sentences for each answer. 1. Deta says about Grandfather, "He has to do his part for Heidi now" (p. 5). Do you think Deta is making the right choice? Use details from pages 3–8 to explain your thinking. 2. The author tells us that Alm-Uncle "lost it all because he spent too much money and made bad choices" and that "his actions broke his parents' hearts" (p. 6). How do Alm-Uncle's past choices affect his life at the start of this chapter? 3. Heidi is described as "very smart for a five-year-old" who "never misses anything" (p. 6). What evidence from the chapter shows that Heidi is curious and brave? Use at least two details from pages 9–13. --- ## Multiple Choice --- Circle the best answer for each question. 1. Why is Heidi wearing so many layers of clothing at the start of the chapter? (pp. 1–10) A. She was cold because of the mountain wind. B. Deta did not want to carry extra clothes in a pack. C. Heidi liked wearing lots of clothes. D. Grandfather had sent the clothes for her to wear. 2. What does Peter do when Deta offers him a five-penny coin? (pp. 9–10) A. He gives the coin back to Deta and says no. B. He stays still and refuses to move. C. He quickly runs down the mountain to get Heidi's clothes. D. He gives the clothes to one of the goats to carry. 3. Which word best describes how Heidi feels when she arrives at Grandfather's hut? (pp. 11–13) A. Frightened and sad B. Excited and curious C. Angry and tired D. Bored and confused --- ## Evidence from the Story --- Answer each question with a sentence from the chapter. Write the page number where you found the answer. 1. What did people in the village think of Alm-Uncle? Find a sentence that shows this. (p. 5) 2. Find a sentence that shows Heidi was happy to be free of her heavy clothes on the mountain path. (p. 10) 3. Find a sentence that shows Grandfather was not completely cold or unkind when he first saw Heidi. (pp. 11–12) -- - ## Creative Response --- You are Barbara. You just watched Deta walk up the mountain with little Heidi to leave her with the strange, lonely Grandfather. Write a journal entry about what you saw and how you feel about it. Use these hints to help you get started: 1. Think about what Barbara said to Deta during their walk. She said, "I'm glad it's not me going to live with the old man" (p. 5). How might Barbara feel after watching Heidi and Deta disappear up the mountain? 2. Think about what Barbara knows about Alm-Uncle — that "he doesn't talk to anyone," "looks and acts so scary," and has "big, gray eyebrows and a long beard" (p. 5). Write about what worries you most for little Heidi. 3. Think about what you saw Heidi do on the mountain path — laughing, taking off her clothes, and chatting with Peter and the goats (pp. 9–10). Does anything about Heidi give you hope? Write about it. --- ## Writing Rubric --- Use this rubric to check your journal entry before you hand it in. Score What it means ----- 4 I wrote as Barbara. I used at least two details from the chapter. My sentences are clear and complete. I shared Barbara's feelings and thoughts. 3 I wrote as Barbara. I used one detail from the chapter. Most of my sentences are clear. I shared some of Barbara's feelings. 2 I tried to write as Barbara but did not use details from the chapter. Some sentences are unclear or incomplete. 1 I did not write as Barbara. I did not use details from the chapter. My writing is hard to follow. --- ## Character Chart --- Fill in the chart for each character from the chapter. Character Who are they? One thing they do in the chapter One word to describe them ----- Heidi Deta Alm-Uncle (Grandfather) Peter Barbara --- ## Draw It --- Draw the scene where Heidi arrives at Grandfather's hut on top of the mountain. Use details from pages 11–13 to make your drawing accurate. Things to include in your drawing: - The hut at the top of the rocky ground - Three old fir trees behind the hut - Grandfather sitting on his bench with his pipe - Heidi calling out "Good evening, Grandfather!" - The goats wandering and nibbling on grass - The valley visible below --- ## Reflect on Your Drawing --- Look at your drawing and finish these sentences: 1. I included the detail of _____ because the story says on page _____ that _____. 2. One thing that was hard to draw was _____ because _____. 3. If I could add one more detail to my drawing, I would add _____ because it would show _____. --- ## Bonus Challenge --- Put these seven events from Chapter 1 in the order they happened. Write the numbers 1 through 7 on the lines. _____ Heidi sits down on the ground and takes off her shoes, socks, and heavy dresses on the mountain path. _____ Deta and Heidi set off from the town of Maienfeld and begin climbing the mountain path. _____ Grandfather's face softens into a smile when he hears Heidi call out "Good evening, Grandfather!" _____ Deta offers Peter a five-penny coin to go back down the mountain and collect Heidi's clothes. _____ Barbara asks Deta to tell her the real story about Alm-Uncle. _____ Deta notices that Heidi is no longer walking behind them and has gone off with Peter and the goats. _____ Deta tells Grandfather that it is now his turn to look after Heidi. --- ## Thinking Deeper --- Think carefully and write at least three sentences for this question. At the end of the chapter, Grandfather grumbles, "What am I supposed to do when she starts missing you and crying? Small children always miss their families, and I won't know what to do" (p. 13). Based on everything you read about Heidi in this chapter, do you think she will miss Deta and cry? Or do you think Heidi will be all right? Use at least two details from the chapter to support your answer.
